The Railroad Bill.

The defeat of the Aroostook Railroad Bill in the House was an unexpected result, from the fact that the House had previously refused to postpone indefinitely, although by a close vote, it is true—there being but four majority against postponement. But the defeat on Tuesday was also effected by a majority of four votes only, and there appear to have been twelve absentees. The yeas and nays are not yet received, and we do not know how the absentees would be likely to stand on this question—but we must indulge a hope that there is yet a chance for the bill. We urge upon those members who oppose the measure not from local and narrow prejudice, but from a fear of adopting a new and more liberal State policy, to reconsider the matter, and take a broader view of the case. We ask them to look at the resources not alone for the benefit merely of Penobscot interests, but as undoubtedly lying very largely for the interest of the whole State. Nay—as in one sense far more for the benefit of the older counties than of our own; for it is a measure designed to check and prevent that disastrous emigration now going on from the farming regions all over the State towards the rich and available lands of the great west—and to turn a stream of hardy and valuable settlers into Maine, the influence of which would raise the value of property and give a healthful and permanent growth to agricultural, manufacturing and commercial business in every section. We ask them to consider that there is no other means by which the disastrous outward tendency from our State can be checked, and a healthy flow induced, except the immediate adoption of a liberal public policy that shall open to settlement on liberal terms the rich and unappropriated land that invite settlers within our borders. We ask them to estimate what the public lands will ever be worth to the State if one acre is to be kept there closed locked—not only from the reach of the great stream of foreign immigration which flows all around our State, but also from our own people,—and to reflect how much of credit, business effect, and increase of the State indebtedness there would be, if a generous and reasonable—and what it was found that many who did not the success of the measure, could not fully aid their sons, their larger indebtedness, but were willing to give what the State already has and what cannot be of any pecuniary benefit to her—the lands themselves—the friends of the road consented to the substitute which was proposed by Mr. Smart as a compromise, and it was generally believed, as was intended by the compromise, that this article, that the alternative proposition would be adopted. We still hope but may be, and we earnestly appeal to our friends in the Legislature who have voted against it still to vote in favor of the measure and throw aside any mere local feelings or prejudices. If any such have affected their votes, and to look at the subject in the broad and full light, which should be thrown upon it. Let them consider that at the Legislature now besieges, so may our State either advance or retrograde in her material interests in the future—and then vote to place her on the road to prosperity.

The Lowell Citizen has an account of a shocking accident in that city on the 21st, by which the wife of Mr Wm Hyde, an overseer in the yard of the Hamilton Print Works, lost her life. With a party of ladies she had gone into the mill, in a room filled with gearing and shafting, where none were allowed, but the workmen; and while observing with a fine fire, with her back to a horizontal shaft about 5 inches from the floor, and which was making 70 turns in a minute, the fringe of her shawl caught the shaft, she fell back upon it, her clothes were wound around, and she was killed almost instantly. As her shawl caught and she felt herself going, she threw from her hand a child which she was holding, and which was only slightly hurt.

A bill has been reported in the Massachusetts House of Representatives incorporating the People's Pacific Railroad Company with a capital of $100,000,000, providing that the road shall be completed before July 4, 1876.

During the past winter there have been fortyfour steamships plying between New York and European ports, and only two of them have been American.

HOWE MAGAZINE.—The April numb r of this excellent Ladies Home Magazine is received.—The engraving "The Bear's Stratagem" is fine and the contents are as usual, varied, and interesting. Terms $2,00 a year or 20 cents a number.

THE ROCKLAND BUILT SHAVER.—A Key West correspondent of the Charleston Courier gives the following account of the shaver Tyrant.

The late slaver abandoned at the Marquisas, it has been ascertained, was named the Pyzahi, 385 tons built at Rockland, Me. She cleared from New York in November last for Pernambuco & Africa. The was reported by the satisfied co, and's stri ct watch kept upon her movements. She, however, managed, to elude the fervent officers, and a ripper, out of the harbor during a severe nor heast storm—She made a rapid run to mo ambique, took on board two hundred and thirty negroes, and got an offing, but was soon after chased in shore and driven into a harbor, and under the guns of a fortified fort, came to ah nother. She escaped during the night, was chased by a British side-wheel steamer, but having a strong wind, and her course taking her near to the trough of the sea, she nearly distanced her pursuer, who unfortunately rolled too much to keep up. By her log book, we learn, that she left the coast of the, 14th of January, and on the 4th of March she, boldly entered the harbor of Havana and discharged her cargo safely, having lost one and had one birth.—After her negroes had been landed, the captain receiving some suspicious movements on board a Spanish frigate, slipper her anchor and made sail, followed by a steamer in hot pursuit. After three were fired, but he got clear, and crossed the gulf, running by Key West one on the Marquisas. The crew were arrested, but the commissioner, finding no evidence sufficient to warrant their detention, they were discharged. The master they arrested the supposed captain, and he is now in prison. It is supposed that his name is Smith, and that he is a cousin of the noted Jerry Lind. He is a Swede. The story of the voyage is from one of the crew; we join no vouch for its authenticity.

If any tel aics can be placed in vat our reports from Washington the Boston Post Office will be moved back to State street, from whence it was removed in such haste by Postmaster Capen.

[The above was written before the following came to hand. We don't pretend to know anything about it now.

Special Dispatch to the Boston Journal.

THE PAUPERISM IN PARIS.—A very worthy gentleman at Pictura is at present receiving letters from which extracts him with the following curious manner. On looking at the state of his health last summer to change the air, he went to the sea shore of Villers-sur-mer, near Trouville, and walking on the beach, he noticed that a lady who was accompanying a little girl, her father, had found a rose full bottle among the sea weeds. The father made the child to run down the dirty thing and not to be soiling his fingers, upon whist the invalid picked up the crystal bottle, and took it with him to his lodgings. In put it in water, and the bottle was found to contain a petition addressed, privately signed and dated on board a vessel which had sprung a leak, and was about to sink. It read thus:

"About to perish, I commend my soul to God. I hereby constitute the finder of this will, residuary legatee, my sole heir. My fortune, justly acquired, amounts to the sum of 350,000 francs and is invested in bonds which I have resided at Valparaiso. This term of exile I wish her return into a chapel, and that a mass may be said there once a month, for the repose of my soul. The fortune will be found deposited with M——, notary, of Paris, to whom from time to time I has been transmitted. Pray for me!"

Signed

We learn from a gentleman who formerly resided in Palermo in Italy, that the police of that city are paid from week to week, only half of their wages. The other half is kept as a reserved fund, out of which all parties suffering injury by theft, burglary and similar crimes, which it is the duty of the police to prevent are indemnified. There is a settlement at the end of every six months, and the surplus is divided among the policemen who are to be made to suffer loss of wages by every failure to perform their duty. The system works admirably. Suppose a man were to rob this plan in New York?—Traveller.

LOCAL AND MAINE NEWS.

OLD AND NEW STYLE TYPE FOR CARD PRINTING!

We have received several New Specimens of Card Type, which we wish to exhibit to those desirous of having Cards Printed in the most Fashionable and Late Styles.

(No. IV.)

BANGOR MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—While it is generally conceded that insurance upon the mutual principle is the most economical in practice it seems to be held not to be the safest, or for large classes of property the cheapest. We usually apply to a Mutual Company to insure our dwelling houses, and to a Stock Company for our stores. Frequently the notion prevails that a Stock Company is more responsible. This is a fallacy. A well-managed Mutual Company is the safest. Compare the condition of the Penobscot Company with the Springfield, mentioned in No. 3.) The first receives good notes to the amount of four thousand per cent for every dollar it insures. However much its business is extended this proportion continues. The Springfield has a capital of $150,000—less than one per cent on the amount it has at risk, which is nearly 19 millions; it has also its premiums, which may be one per cent additional. If it has anything more the profits of its business must be larger than has heretofore been assumed. The two—capital and premiums together—bear a smaller ratio to the amount at risk than do the premiums of the Penobscot Company to the extent of its liabilities, while every extension of the Stock Company diminishes the ratio of its capital to the possible demands upon it. Mutual Companies are thus relatively growing stronger, and Stock Companies weaker, with every enlargement of operations. Each must depend upon its premiums. Inasmuch as members of Mutua Companies make themselves contingent liable for larger premiums than Stock Companies receive to cash, the Mutual have larger resources to cover losers than the other.

Nor are the resources of a Stock Company, if less in amount, any better in quality than those of a Mutua. Its capital and funds are not unlivested in stock, usually as well as Mutuals know how, but frequent losses occur in the best devised investments; and in the average, the notes and contracts taken for its premiums by a well conducted Mutual Company are quite as safe as the stocks and securities on which the funds of a Stock Company are placed.

THE ICE.—The river is now clear of ice from Bangor to the mouth. The jam broke at the Narrows yesterday, and the whole body of ice forced its way out.

THE STEAMER SANFORD will leave her wharf in this city to-day at 11 o'clock.

It was reported last evening that the House of Representatives yesterday reconsidered the vote whereby they rejected the Aroostook Railroad Bill a passage, but we can hardly learn that there were good grounds for the report. We received no dispatch from Augusta yesterday.

DAMAGE AT HAMPDEN.—We understand that about sixty feet of the dam of Messrs. J. & D. Crosby & Co.'s paper mill in Hampden were carried away by the freshet Thursday night. A dwelling house near was flooded, but the inmates escaped. We do not learn the amount of damage.

SPLENDID LITHOGRAPHS.—We would call attention to some lithographic portraits of Ralph W. Emerson, Sumner, Banks, the champions of freedom, and many others, which are for sale by D. H. Patch, and which were published by one of our most eminent and scarce stful lithographers, Mr. C. H. Brainard of Boston. Mr. B. deserves a rich harvest for the great care that he has taken in the arrangement of his works, and for the zeal that he has shown in his endeavors to give to the world fresh and expressive likenesses of our great and worthy men.

The Machias Union indeed seems disposed to continue any controversy with the Republican Journal on the question of "What is popular sovereignty?" The democratic doctors find it impossible to agree as to what is popular sovereignty. Douglas thinks it entirely consistent, with the Dred Scott Doctrines, but some of the Douglas organs in Maine don't like to come up to that scratch just yet. They want to wait till after the State election.

The Calais Advertiser says that the cases on the Calais and Baring canal recommenced running on the 19th inst., and that the Lewy's Island train commenced again on the 21st.

ST. STEPHEN'S CHURCH.—Rev. Roger S. Howard, the new Rector of St. Stephen's Parish, delivered an admirable discourse on Sabbath morning, founded on the words of Paul in the 1st Corinthians, 2:3, 4

"And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power."

The discourse abounded with beautiful illustrations of the particular traits in the character of Paul as herself described in the text, while such modest personal application was made as seemed to befit the occasion. Mr. Howard's allusions also to the late Rector, Alex. Bethune, showed that under the bodily infirmities of years and disease, there was a gentle, loving spirit, and a thorough knowledge and appreciation of the eminent services of the late pastor.—Portland Advertiser.

ARREST OF A CITIZEN OF NORTHPORT IN HAVANA.—The Havana correspondent of the New York Herald states that Mr. Thomas Asencio, a native of that Island, but now a citizen of Portland, was arrested at Havana on the 18th inst., and provided with questions at the residence of the Commissioner of the city. The General Consul of the United States on the 19th, waited upon Gov. Concha, with an official note, requiring information as to the cause of the arrest and detention of Mr. Asencio.

Mr. Asencio is connected in the one of the most eminent firms in Portland—Satrustegui & Ascabior. He has resided in the United States about ten years, and has been in business in Portland for some years. As the steamer sailed on the day after he was arrested, no further news have been received relating to it. The next steamer will probably bring full particulars upon the subject.

THE CONGREGATIONAL LITERARY ASSOCIATION of South Berwick, has the following officers:—President, Joel S. Young, York; Vice President, Charles H. Gilman, South Berwick; Secretary and Treasurer, Hannah Vasrell, York; Standing Committee, Charles A. Decker, Salmon Falls. Edward A. Chapman, York. Albert W. Libbey, Eliot.

BAD ACCIDENT.—A correspondent at Cranberry Isles, informs us that on the 16th inst. Smith D. Spurling left his home in that town and went out gunning. About 5 o'clock P. M., it blew very hard and he put up his sail for the purpose of returning home, when the boat was upset and he was drowned. His age was about 33 years. The body had not been found up to last Thursday.—Argus.

DISASTER.—A despatch from New Orleans 20th, states that ship Monticello of Richmond, for Liverpool, with 2800 bales cotton was abandoned on Sunday, seventy miles outside the bar, on fire. The crew returned to New Orleans. The bar is improving, and the vessels detained there will all get over in a few days if the wind continues favorable.

Capt Wm Aldrich, late of brig F. P. Peck, of New Bedford, before reported lost on the Riding Rocks, has returned from Nassau. He states that brig G. W. Barker, (of St. George) Barker, from Sagua for New York, put into Nassau 16th inst, in distress, having been ashore on Little Abaco, and was got off by the steamer Island Home. Had discharged 400 hhds sugar. The vessel had sustained but little damage, having but a portion of her sheeting and was leaking some. The salvage on vessel and cargo, amounting to $8000 was settled on the morning of the 21st inst, and Capt Barker would commence immediately to take in cargo, and proceed to this port of destination.

Sch Dr Kane, Ryder, from Sagua for New York, with molasses, put into Key West 26th inst, leaking, and would have to discharge.

Disaster to the Boston Water Works!

The Boston Journal says:

Where the Cochituate aqueduct crosses Charles River at Newton Lower Falls, instead of being carried over the river upon a level, there is a sudden descent to the bed of the river, and a corresponding rise on the opposite bank. At the point where the aqueduct ascend there was a gate-house of solid masonry, which it has been supposed would withstand any pressure.

Between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning, the gate-house was carried away, and with it a portion of the embankment, and the three large water pipes. The debris from the wreck was heaped up in the river, obstructing the current, and causing it to the height of several feet, stopping the mills at Newton Upper Falls, flooding the lands in the vicinity, clay-coloring the water as it passed, the scene, and rendering it unfit for the use of the paper mills at Newton Lower Falls.

The bridge on which the pipes cross the river, fortunately was not carried away. The full extent of the damage we have not yet learned, but it is probably very great in a pecuniary point of view. The most serious evil connected with this disaster, however, is the threatened deficiency of water. The accident cuts off the supply of water from the Lake, and the city is now dependent for its supply upon the water stored in the Brookline reservoir, and in the three reservoirs at East Boston, South Boston, and Beacon Hill.

In an hour and a half after the ace dent nearly a hundred feet of the conduit and pipes were carried away, causing a chasm of full that length, extending from the bridge into the embankment. The breach was about sixty feet wide and eighty feet deep, from which the earth was washed out nearly level with the river bank, leaving the pipes and masses of the broken conduit imbedded in a confused heap at the bottom.

Immediate measures are being taken to secure its repair at the earliest moment, and in the meantime the Water Board have forbidden the use of it to many of the water takers who use it for manufacturing purposes, and cautioned all to use it sparingly. Pressure entertained that the supply will give out before the accident can be repaired, which would cause a vast amount of inconvenience and suffering.

From California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25th.

The news of the defeat of the Pacific railroad bill in the United States Senate arrived here yesterday by the overland mail, and created a profound sensation. One paper announces the death of the bill, with black lines of mourning around and below its leading article. Another declares severely enmity to the Democratic party which, having the power, is responsible for the defeat of the measure.

The new design of war building for the U. S. government at the Mare Island Navy Yard, is to be launched to-morrow. Ships built chiefly of California laurel and Puget Sound fir.

The Sandy Hook arrived a few days since from Boston, with a large cargo of stores for the ports of the Fraser River, for which she is said to be good gain, and have come expecting to be employed as servants. Many will find places without difficulty. A fortunate few, skilled in household affairs, industrious, neat and respectful, can always make $30 a month and board. If she is a good bargain maker, she can get $40 after she has been here a month. Ten or fifteen cellars above the common pay are willingly paid for a girl better than most of her class.

It is reported that David Scanlon, ex-sheriff of this county, is organizing a company of filibusters to go to Sonora and a Frenchman has been running about among the Frenchmen in a sedulously trying to raise a French company to go with Scanlon.

Henry Bernard; Edmund Blake, and George W. and W. C. Reynolds were wounded on the night of the 17th inst., by an explosion of steam, which did down from the Dowdleville Bellows, Shasta county. The latter, with James Phillips, were in Reynolds' sawing house, near the quartz mill, when the explosion came. It completely destroyed the house.

The San Juan Press speaks thus of the prospect for miners:

The country is thoroughly saturated with moisture—water is abundant in every district, and likely to continue so for a considerable length of time. These facts warrant the belief that the coming spring will be the most productive mining season ever known in this section.

A few days ago a little boy, apparently ten days old, or thereabout, was found early in the morning, lying plainly wrapped up, at the door of W. W. Shield, a married man, whose wife is childless. The little fellow had the following modest appeal, well written in a woman's hand, pinned on his dress:

To the dear lady who will be my mother:

I'm little Frank, without a home. Oh, take me for thine only son. None shall annoy thee to thy sbbins, and I'll do better than any of the boys.

LITTLE FRANK.

To church a person entered a pew, and, believing he had got a good seat, unfortunately sat down upon the front of a lady who happened to be rather high principled. Under an instant he rose to his feet and begged the lady's pardon in these words—"I beg pardon, ma'am, but I'm feared I've broke your umbrella." "Nothing wrong," said the lady blushing.

THE REGULAR NAVY.—There is a grand struggle now going on between England and France on naval supremacy, the latter having quality and ardors impercaptibly gained a superiority over the latter in the number and efficiency of her vessels. This is publicly acknowledged by the British Lords of the Admiralty, who last summer examined into the condition of the French navy. It was found that at the end of 1859 England would have thirty-six line-of-battle ships, 3450 guns, 20,740 horse power, and that the French force would amount to forty line-of-battle ships, 3706 guns, and 17,810 horse power. The comparison is extended only to screw ships, which are now considered by British naval authorities as the right arm of the service. In regard to steam frigates, the comparison is still less favorable to England. To overcome this disparity the Big lish dock yards and boundries are pushed to their utmost productiveness. New ships are in course of construction, and selling vessels are being converted into screw steamers. But this is not all. The French have added iron-cased ships to their navy, and the British Admiralty have determined to follow suit, although the cost is enormous. As the result of these efforts, England will at the end of the next year, have added to her navy fifteen line-of-battle ships, nine frigates, and two iron ships. The Admiralty look forward to and propose still further add tions to the fleet in 1860 and 1861, in order in the language of Sir J. Pakington, that "English naval supremacy may be fully re-established." These important additions to the navy have at a moment's re caused an increase of the naval estimates, which have risen from $34,500,000 in 1853, to 39,813,000 for the coming year. It is estimated by competent authority that the cost of ships already belonging to the British navy, including their machinery, is about £30,000,000 or $150,000,000; yet there seems no disposition to withhold whatever additional sums may be requisite to maintain British maritime supremacy.

Louis Napoleon may have the most ships, but Queen Vic has the best sailors, as history proves.—Boston Journal.

A La Porte, Sierra Co., California paper of 21st mentions a snow storm which lasted three days and fell from fifteen to twenty feet of snow on the ground.

"Summer is Coming Again."

Bright morning awoke from her dewy sleep
And drew back the curtains of day,
That the bright orbed sun from his eastern home
Might cheer all the earth with his ray.

All carolets might march in his train,
Methought he looked manfully seemed less cold

As he guided his steeds on high—
Methought the deeply blue heaven above
Looked more like a summer sky.

From the old one tree near our cottage door
The gay song of a redbreast rolled
In a free glad trill—yet methought the bird
Would did in the sight's chill cold.

"Why hast thou left you sunny clime
To roam in our frozen ymna?"
In an unsaw ingsong he warbled forth
"Bright summer is coming again."

I asked the roley wild-wood brook,
Which came singing from forest old
"Why fly, severed so long," they sang and bright
While on, even on it rolled!

Methought it paused in its headlong way—
Then onward it sped in a livlier strain,
And its liquid laugh as it hurried away,
Rang out "Summer is coming again."

When I asked the breeze as it idly played
Mid the leafless elm tree's bare limbs,
If those tales were true—that I might believe
What the robin and brooklet told

"Aye, maiden, aye, I come from the South
Where I play mid orange bowers—
Aye, summer is coming to where you land
Her full horn of fruits and flowers.

Spain.

A Madrid despatch of March 19th says that Preston, the Minister of the United States, left yesterday by the Queen in a special train for Irun, in the name of President Buchanan, to present his own personal congratulations and those of the general wish of the people of the United States, on the happy event which has just occurred, and to present to her Majesty the felicitations of the President and people of the United States on the birth of the Princess of Asturias, and to express the hope that the union between the United States and Spain may be perpetual.

The Queen replied in the most friendly terms to the United States and its Minister.

The Iberia recommends that the reception of Preston shall make the expedition complete for the purchase of Cuba; and the Heraldo shall reply by sending him to Washington.

The steamship Northern Light, which left Boston evening from Aspinwall, 22d, arrived at that port. She has 670 passengers and $1,000,000 in treasure.

Valparaiso dates to March 5th have been received. Another abortive attempt had been made at Valparaiso May 25th, to dethrone the patriots.

The American consulate was closed on the 5th.

The revolutionary movement in Chili was dangerous for the Government.

By the English mail, London papers of the 16th inst. have been received from Great Britain.

WATERVILLE, 30th.

The afternoon train on the Somerset and Kennebec Railroad, ran in a place which had washed away, about six miles below here completely burying the engine and throwing the baggage car off the track and seriously injuring Conductor Mitchell. No others hurt.

SEVEN DAYS

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE

PERSIA

AND

AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, March 30.

Steamships Persia and Kangaroo have arrived.

The Parliamentary proceedings are unimportant.

The jury in the Irish treason trials were out 24 hours, and unable to agree. They were therefore discharged.

There is nothing authentic as to Lord Cowley's mission at Vienna, but it is believed there is little to be hoped for.

Paris correspondents consider matters growing more critical. The Moniteur complains of the hostile attitude of the German States.

The Bourse was depressed.

Consols 95¾ a 95⅞.

There was a panic in the Vienna money market.

China dates to Feb. 29th are received. Teas and silks had advanced.

Liverpool breadstuffs market was dull.—Flour 10s per 100 lbs. Corn and wheat inactive. Provisions dull.

The London money market was buoyant.

Latest.

London, March 29th. The likelihood of war is still more imminent.

Consols closed at 96¾.

Wheat firmer and flour unchanged

Additions by the Persia.

England.

A powerful combination, including Lord Palmerston, Shaftesbury, John Russell, Lyndhurst and others had been formed for the purpose of raising funds in aid of the Neapolitan exiles.

The reform measure continued to be actively discussed in England.

Earl Grey, one of the leaders in the Whig party had written a letter strongly objecting to Lord John Russell's contemplated amendment.

The London Herald maintains that Derby has high authority for stating that in case Lord John Russell should succeed in impeaching the ministry, and be called upon to form another, he will give Cabinet appointments to Messrs. Bright, Cobden, Ayston, Bostwick and Horsman,—all of these gentlemen having offered their services.

Italy.

The troops undergoing in Piedmont amount to 42,000 men, and the new levies and reserves called out were calculated to bring the total up to 87,000. The orders to join were very stringent.

An order is said to have been received in Paris from the Sardinian government for 40,000 revolvers, to be paid for out of the new loan.

It is also said that the orders given in France for 30,000 pairs of sheets and soldiers' coats for the Sardinian army had been increased to 50,000.

Garibaldi is said to have been appointed General of Division, and will command the three new battalions being formed at Genoa.

Austria.

The Austrians were said to be preparing a military hospital at Paris, to have 2000 beds.

All the regiments on the frontier of Croatia had been moved into Lombardy.

The Emperor Francis Joseph was expected shortly in Italy.

A Vienna despatch says that large bodies of troops had recently come to that city from the southern and eastern provinces of the empire, and there was reason to believe that another army of 50,000 men would in a few days be on the way to Italy.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times says that Austria will assuredly act strictly on the defensive, and that her great armaments are made purely from lack of faith in the pacific professions of the Emperor of the French.

Germany.

In a great sitting sitting of the Hanoverian Chambers a war loan of one million pounds had been approved upon, and the government had been urged to demand at the Diet of Frankfort the calling out of the federal reserve.

The Ministers of War of those States who furnish contingents to the 8th corps of the federal army, held a conference at the castle of Bruchsal.

Spain.

A Madrid despatch of March 13, says Mr. Preston, the Minister of the U. S. was received yesterday by the Queen in a private audience, in the name of President Buchanan he assured her Majesty of the President's desire to maintain friendly relations with Spain, and expressed his own personal convictions that the general wish of the people of the United States was to preserve the bonds of friendship existing between the United States and Spain, and to do everything in their power to avoid any misunderstanding between the two countries. The Queen replied in terms flattering both to the United States and its Minister.

The Iberia recommends that when Mr. Preston shall make the expected proposition for the purchase of Cuba, the government shall reply by sending him his passports.

NEW YORK, 30th.

The steamship Northern Light arrived this evening from Aspinwall 22d.

She has 670 passengers and $137,000 in treasure.

Valparaiso dates are to March 1.

Another abortive attempt at revolution was made at Valparaiso Feb'y 25th.

The battle lasted 6 hours, resulting as usual in the defeat of the patriots.

The American consulate was riddled with shot.

The revolutionary movement throughout Chili was dangerously powerful and popular. Only the English mail steamer important news had been received from Greytown.

The U. S. sloop of war Decatur having anchored in a cove near San Juan del Sur, was taken for filibusters. The Transport with 500 troops took possession of the Transit route to prevent their landing, but being satisfied of their true character, he returned, disembarking all troops. Meanwhile a French officer with a small force crossed the lake to the river San Juan Salva. The white steamers were forcibly detained and their officers and crews imprisoned, and had not been released when the steamer left.

Punta Castillo and San Carlos are to be given up to Mons. Selly, and in every their head quarters.

The three Crossley Troubles has been realled.

The workshops and houses at Punta Arenas belonging to the Accessory Transit Company have been swept away by the sea.

Greytown harbor is rapidly filling up—the entrance being narrowed to less than forty feet.

According to the Panama Star, it was Nicaraguan government officers who took possession of the American line boats which have been abandoned to Belly.

The same paper reports all the southern part of Chili in the hands of government.

Talca was delivered up without fighting.

The general opinion was that in a month the country would be as quiet as ever.

The steamship Illinois has arrived this evening.

The steamship Illinois also arrived this evening.

She passed, 25th, 170 miles E from Hatteras, the steamer Star of the West; 24th, 25 miles ESE of Cape Henlopen, ship Consignment of Brunswick, bound to Philadelphia.

WASHINGTON, 30th.

The Postmaster General has addressed a letter to Gen. Schouler on the part of the roads rents, in which he says the question to be determined is whether all the amount and form of indemnity attending the removal of the Boston Post Office back to the former building. The indemnity must assume such a shape as will secure beyond all doubt the payment of the rent of $12,000 for the Summer Street office, as it shall fall due; and to that end a deposit in the sub treasury of that sum to the credit of the government must be made. If it be true that the State Street location cannot be secured except at a larger sum than has been here before paid, the indemnity must be for a rent formerly paid and that which may now be exacted should be added.

The Post Office Department, has despatched two agents in the South, with instructions promptly to re ors all names of the reported failures of mails to connect with it incomplete railroads in Mississippi, but last night failing to remedy the evil, and enforce compliance with the contract for the conveyance of the mails between New Orleans and Washington within schedule time.

Advices from Fort Yuma give very discouraging accounts of the good gatherings in that vicinity.

Brevard H. Schoonover of Pa., is appointed agent for the Indians on the upper Missouri.

Senator Yulee, who has been very ill is now the adjournment of Congress is now convalescent.

According to letters received from Lieut. Brooks, commanding the U. S. schooner Kendrick Cooper, now engaged in surveying the route between San Francisco and Chiloe and Japan, the guano island taked possession of by him, costs 6s. at the lowest estimate for 25,000 tons of guano. The results of the survey thus far, do not, withstanding the shallowness of the outfit, are regarded as of high value to our commercial marine.

BOSTON, 30th.

In the House this afternoon, at the close of a long debate, the vote was taken upon the liberty bill. Mr Wells of Greenfield, one of the Republican leaders, asked to be excused from voting, but the House refused, when he voted against the bill. The bill was defeated by a vote of yeas 105, nays 109.

PERRY DAVIS' Vegetable Pain Killer!

REV. T. ALLEN writes from Davey, Jackson, Ind., as follows:—Within the past five years I have used and dispensed more than five hundred bottles, but am now out. I have sent me a fresh supply (through the Mission Rooms) as soon as you can, say two hundred bottles. I dare not be without it myself, and there are endless calls for it, both by Rovers and Luminars. I always take it with me into the jungles, and have frequent occasion to use it for myself and others. One night, while sleeping in an open Zayat, I was awoke by a most excruciating pain in my foot. On examination I found I had been bitten by a Centipede. I immediately applied the Pain Killer, and found instant relief. In less than an hour I was again asleep.

Rev. H. Van Meter, of Bassalia, India, writes:—[In a let me assure you that we prize your Pain Killer very highly, for the first two or three years of our residence in India we were a great deal of valuable property and did not use it, but now would hardly feel safe without it for a single day. Only a few nights since Mrs. Van Meter was stung by a scorpion, and intense pain was the consequence, from about the arm and body. A dose or two of your Pain Killer, and continued application of the Pain Killer for an hour or more and at intervals during the night, the alarming symptoms were subdued, and in the morning only a slight soreness was left in the part. Many Africans were cured of fever and Ague by according to directions, and it is used here as a certain, speedy, and effectual remedy for Cholera, Cholera Infantum, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Colic, Cramp, Sick Headache, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sprains, Wounds, Bites of Insects, Fresh Cuts, &c.

Prepared only by Dr. Davis & Son—[sons]. We have sold the interest of the latter partner, Mr. Mantle, and hope to show Good Pain Killer for a few days. American & Foreign Patents

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837,

70 State St., opposite Kilby St.,

BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years continues to secure Patents in the United States also, in Great Britain France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications Bonds, Assignments, and all papers or Drawings for Patents executed on liberal terms and with despatch. Researches made in to American or foreign works, to determine the novelty or utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal opinions rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by any. If not immediately superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. His Testimonials below will show that more than 3,000 MORE SUCCESSFUL APPLICATIONS have been made at THE PATENT OFFICE through this Agency, and success is the best proof of advantages and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are within reach of professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the last twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, these, besides the extensive library of legal and mechanical works and all the models and official publications of the United States and Europe render him able beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved to inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

Messrs. Mr. EDDY as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy and every way capable of procuring for them a speedy and favorable decision as early and favorable a consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Boston, February 8 1858.

R. H. EDDY, Esq. has made for me THIRTEEN applications at different times for which he has procured patents, all of which have been granted, and that in a very few months. Such unremarkable success of great things and all by one who has made no pretensions to the profession, is simply to show that people may be sure of having all necessary and reasonable attention bestowed on their cases and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

From Sept 17 h, 1857, to June 17th 1858, the subscriber has drawn 13 patents for inventors on whose rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS HAVE BEEN TAKEN which he conducted in person by the Commissioner of Patents.

The Honey Blade Grass.

THE results which have been obtained by experiments in the cultivation of this newly imported species of product, have awakened an interest among the first agriculturists, in many sections, never before equalled in the entire history of our agricultural industry. Facts in regard to its valuable properties, which at first seemed almost incredible, have now been established beyond the possibility of a doubt, and it is believed that its general introduction will add millions of dollars to our agricultural wealth. I have not the space here to enter into details, but will briefly name its advantages.

First—It will produce double the weight of others in any soil, of any other kind of grass. From four to six tons per acre is not an enormous yield, and I am in possession of more accurate statements by disinterested and reliable persons of a single acre in soil where it was not possible to get more than one half the amount from any of the common grasses.

Second—The above weight possesses more nutriment, and consequently will sell for a larger price in the market than inferior grasses. For more than double the return from the same crop that he could obtain from any other crop grown. The hay possesses nine third more nutriment than timothy, and has sold for $18 per ton where the price of timothy was but $10 or $12.

Third—Both hay and seed can be procured from the same crop, the hay being equally valuable as either pay after the seed is taken off. In fact the seed is as valuable as the best of timothy grain, as a feed for horses, cattle, sheep, chickens, &c., and it is proved by the best farmers in the country, that the manufacture of oil, and meal always finds a ready sale at a fair price for the purpose.

Fourth—It matures in about two months, and can be sown on grounds where other crops have failed either by soil, drought or insects, and at the same time, will yield a rich harvest.

Fifth—In northern climates, where all the other grasses are killed out by the severe winters, will yield a large crop, and in the sections of the South where their grasses will not thrive at all it will grow very prolific.

Sixth—It will stand all kinds of weather and whether the season be wet or dry the farmer may always rely upon his Honey Blade as a sure crop.

These and other advantages are proved by affidavits which are endorsed by some of the first agriculturists of the Union and cannot fail to carry every victim to every intelligent reader.

Having been engaged during the past year in the purchase and importation of the Honey Blade Seed, I have determined to offer it for sale on such terms as will make it an object for every farmer and planter to interest himself during the coming season, in its cultivation. It is proposed to put up in small packages of about sixteen pounds each, the same being sufficient to sow one acre, and the price is $3 per bag, delivered in New York or St. Louis.

Bags or bags for lots can be sent to any part of the country as freight or by express and will be put up, delivered for transportation and other proper arrangements made free of charge.

Each bag is stamped with the Hungarian coat of arms, and the following entering into each Honey Blade Hungarian Grass Seed. It will be put up agents in various sections, but parties should be careful of whom they purchase and secure the pure genuine seed. They are especially cautioned not to purchase the common Hungarian Millet Seed, as it is very far inferior to the Honey Blade.

An interesting pamphlet containing all the facts, and full particulars will be forwarded free of charge by me or any of my agents upon application. I will state as an indication of the interest which the subject is exciting, that nearly a quarter of a mile on either side of my premises I have already been applied for.

Parties desiring to secure seed should order at once as the limited quantities that the limited amount obtained will be exhausted long before the season of sowing has passed. Those who order seed in the year can realize a little return by producing seed to supply the demand of farmers and others for another year.

Orders should be sent directly to me or to the vicinity of New York where they will be filled by J. M. HANSON & Co., 400 Broadway New York General Agents.

Agricultural Houses, General Merchants, and any other parties desiring to act as agents, or to become agents for the sale of the Honey Blade Seed. Authority, full particulars and terms, and to 100 pamphlets for distribution will be forwarded whether by mail or the New York Agency, on receipt of 5 cents to pay the postage.

I am authorized to name the following well known gentlemen as references. Hon. John Quincy President of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association, Vice Pres. of the National Agricultural Society, and member of Congress elect from St. Louis; T. Tillman Esq., President of the Missouri State Agricultural Society; John J. Anderson Banker in St. Louis; John Riggin Jr. Broker, St. Louis and ex Mayor Washington King of St. Louis.
